EBOR FASHION LAWN FAQ's

How do I enter?

All County Stand and Grandstand and Paddock racegoers are invited to be contestants and to register and participate in the heats between 11am and 2.30pm each day. Simply register at the Ebor Fashion Lawn itself on the Edwardian Weighing Room Lawn.

The competition is free to enter once you have purchased an admission to either County Stand or Grandstand & Paddock. Racegoers attending on multiple days can keep coming back.

We have two friendly hosts on the day, milliner Yvette Jelfs and Minster FM's Ben Fry but no need to talk about your outfit if you don't want to, just be ready to take your turn on the catwalk!

When are the heats?

11am to 2.30pm each day.

Depending on the number of contestants you will either wait to take your turn on the catwalk or be asked to return at a specified time. There will be no heats after 2.30pm.

What are the judges looking for?

The judging panel will cast an expert eye over the preparations and purchases before them and will combine to decide the winner of the "Best Dressed Racegoer" on each day; that is said with care, as it could be one of the boys!

Smart, elegant, coordinated, unusual and beautifully accessorised are some of the words the judges have used in the past.

It is intended to be part of the fun of a raceday and the wide spectrum of fantastic prizes reflects the broad appeal of the event. All are welcome, so come to take part or at least offer some support to those who do!

The judge's decision is final.

How many categories are there?

Overall we have a best dressed racegoer for each category each day. There are also prizes for the best dressed lady, man, child and couples and best hat supported by Yvette Jelfs.

The overall winner on Ladies Day (Thursday 18 August) also crowned 'Best Dressed Festival Racegoer', and will win a short break for two to the Marriott Hotel in Dubai, including a trip to the races at Meydan Racecourse.

Can my child enter the children's category?

How will we know who has been shortlisted?

At 3.15pm each day a list of shortlisted contestants will be displayed on the noticeboard at the Ebor Fashion Lawn as well as on the big screens around the course.

There is the option to provide your mobile number so we can try to contact you on course, but please do still look out for big screen announcements or visit the Ebor Fashion Lawn if you are concerned at any point.
