

ACCESSIBILITY | A RACECOURSE FOR ALL

York Racecourse is committed to providing an accessible environment for all.

Directions

Sat nav postcode YO23 1EX (for regular traffic updates tune into BBC York 103.7fm)

A printable map is available on our website: yorkracecourse.co.uk/getting-here.html

Parking

Accessible parking bays are available at the Marble Entrance, which is a white pillared portico and the main passage through into the venue.

As you travel down the road you will see a footbridge overhead. The entrance is just before this bridge on the right-hand side.

The Marble Entrance consists of six double doors.

Once parked, please enter through this foyer using the far left door, and exit left to the available ramp.

Please be aware that this is a public road and therefore all vehicles are parked at owner's risk

Access to the Function Rooms

Once exited to the ramp, moving onwards:

The Ebor Stand – is a glass foyer opposite the ramp end

The Knavesmire Stand – continue onwards from the ramp and ahead through a courtyard where the stand is to your right.

The Parade Ring Restaurant – travel to your right and the onward tarmac route past the lawns and terraces to the Parade Ring. The suite entry doors are located to the left of the Frankel statue, where a chair lift is available.

All function rooms are all accessible via passenger lifts. Should you have any questions regarding size in relation to a particular wheelchair, please do ask our team.

Assistance During Your Visit

If you require information or assistance in advance of, or during your visit, please ask a member of our team, who will be more than happy to assist you. Please do speak to them on the day.

Toilets

All disabled toilets are fit

ed with radar locks. Guests are encouraged to bring their own radar keys with them, however radar keys for all toilets are available from the racecourse team.

Accessibility Officer

York Racecourse Operations Executive Phil Atkinson is the designated Access Officer. He is available to discuss any special arrangements and to assist with any queries. Phil can be contacted on 01904 620911 or by email phil.atkinson@yorkracecourse.co.uk

